4. EXPEDITORS, in its capacity as a NVOCC, is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Commission.
5. AWI, by this Complaint, avows and asserts that Respondent, EXPEDITORS, acting as a NVOCC, has violated Section 10 of the 1984 Act, 46 U.S.C. App. § 1709.
6. In pertinent part, Sections 10(b)(4)(A), 10(b)(8) and 10(d)(1) of the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended, (46 U.S.C. App. § 1709 10(b)(4)(A), 10(b)(8) and (d)(1)) provide:

8. The parties have not utilized informal dispute resolution procedures heretofore and AWI has not consulted with the Commission Dispute Resolution Specialist about utilizing alternative dispute resolution (ADR) under the FMC's ADR program. See 46 CFR § 502.62(e).

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

At all times pertinent to this action,

9. EXPEDITORS was a NVOCC, a common carrier within the definition of Sec. 3 (17)(B), operating pursuant to a tariff on file with the Commission providing ocean transportation services during the time period from 2004-2006.
10. AWI utilized the services of EXPEDITORS for its ocean transportation requirements throughout the world and in particular for this complaint on its transportation services from the Far East to AWI's United States facilities through West Coast ports, through EXPEDITORS' West Coast mini-landbridge service to interior destinations and for all water shipments through the Panama Canal to the East Coast destinations.
11. During the 2005 peak shipping season EXPEDITORS triple charged AWI for the pass-through peak season shipping charges assessed under its ocean shipping contracts with its Vessel Operating Common Carriers ("VOCC").
12. EXPEDITORS' tariff had three separate rules for peak surcharges during 2005:
 - i. Rule #90-87 - PEAK SURCHARGE – ASIA TO USA for the period June 15 – November 30, 2005. Applicable on all shipments...From Far East and Indian Subcontinent...to the United States, excluding west coast routings. (Emphasis added.)
 - ii. Rule # 90-86 - PEAK VOLUME SURCHARGE – ASIA TO USA for the period June 15 – November 30, 2005. Applicable on all shipments ...From Far East and Indian Subcontinent...to the United States excluding west coast routings. (Emphasis added).
 - iii. Rules # 90-85 – PEAK SEASON SURCHARGE – ASIA TO USA for the period June 15 – November 30, 2005. Applicable on all shipments ...From the Far East and Indian Subcontinent...to the United States excluding west coast routings. (Emphasis added).

13. EXPEDITORS' specific tariffs for AWI's products, Flooring Materials NOS, Floor Coverings NOS and Vinyl Flooring NOS, for shipments out of various ports in Asia to the United States included all three peak surcharges.
14. EXPEDITORS' tariffs include all three peak surcharges in the base rate assessed to AWI or it included two out of the three in the base rate and then added the third separately as an itemized surcharge.
15. On information and belief that EXPEDITORS triple charged AWI for peak surcharges during the course of 2004 and 2006 in the same or similar manner, in derogation of applicable tariffs then in effect.
16. EXPEDITORS' overcharge of the peak surcharges during 2005 amounted to $216,765, but AWI believes the total amount overcharged will increase for similar overcharges on shipments made during the 2004 and 2006 peak season and the additional funds overcharged will be proven during the course of this proceeding.

FIRST COUNT

17. AWI repeats and alleges each of the averments contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.
18. EXPEDITORS' inclusion of three separate "peak" surcharges was discriminatory to AWI.
19. EXPEDITORS, for service pursuant to a tariff, engaged in an unfair or unjustly discriminatory practice in the matter of rates and charges.
20. Such action constitutes a violation of Section 10(b)(4)(A) of the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended. See, 46 U.S.C. 1709(b)(4)(A).

SECOND COUNT

21. AWI repeats and alleges each of the averments contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.
22. EXPEDITORS' inclusion of any peak surcharges in the Expeditors' tariffs created for AWI's ASIA to USA shipments to west coast ports was contrary to EXPEDITORS' own tariff rules which specifically excluded charging any peak surcharges to west coast ports and was therefore discriminatory to AWI.

23. EXPEDITORS', for service pursuant to a tariff, imposed undue and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage to AWI.
24. Such action constitutes a violation of Section 10(b)(8) of the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended. See 46 U.S.C. App. § 1709 (b)(8).

THIRD COUNT

25. AWI repeats and alleges each of the averments contained in the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint.
26. EXPEDITORS failed to observe its own tariff rules and grossly overcharged AWI by providing a tariff that was confusing and unreasonable.
27. Such actions constitute per se failure by an ocean transportation intermediary to establish just and reasonable regulations and practices relating to or connected with receiving, handling, storing or delivering property.
28. Such action constitutes a violation of Section 10(b)(8) of the Shipping Act of 1984, as amended. See 46 U.S.C. App. § 1709 (b)(8).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Complainant AWI prays that an order be entered finding Respondent EXPEDITORS to have violated sections 10(b)(4)(B), 10(b)(8), and 10(d)(1) of the Shipping Act of 1984 and directing EXPEDITORS to pay all overcharges of peak season surcharges in accordance with its own tariff rules by way of reparations for the unlawful conduct above described and such other amounts proven by evidence in this proceeding with interest and attorney's fees, and that such other and further order or orders be made as the Commission determines to be proper in the premises.
